

Steve Grisbrook

BAND STORY

"Toronto based, "new age Bluesman" Steve Grisbrook, has been known to sit in with 5 different bands in a any given week, but teaming up with Rod Phillips on organ and vocals, Garth Vogan on bass, and drummer Terry Martel, they are collectively known as Midnite Walk, a popular Toronto area 'smokin' blues band"

LATEST NEWS

"new age Bluesman" Steve Grisbrook

Toronto based, "new age Bluesman" Steve Grisbrook, was never interested in playing sports as a child. When other kids were out playing hockey and baseball, Steve was inside spinning sides on an old turntable, recording them onto a beat up cassette recorder, and playing DJ.

This later evolved into a bedroom done up in Black light paint, coloured lights, and playing air guitar to some of his favourite glam bands.

When the offer of Guitar Lessons was presented, there was no turning back. Steve started playing at the age of 13.

He toured Canada and US with Chicago Pete.

read more...

STATS

Visits

846

Streams

35

Plays

37

Downloads

2

Featured Songs

1

Shake it up

Blues

For additional information please contact us
©2010 Canadian Music - Artists - Bands